Ref: Cadbury, PLC Further Response to May 8, 2008 Inquiry

Dear Chairman Dingell and Chairman Stupak:

I am providing our final response to your letter of May 8, 2008, in which you requested certain information relating to the safety of food sold in the United States. In our prior submissions, we provided information responsive to your request for our domestic operations and part of our international operations, focusing on information from our facilities in the Americas. You and your staff allowed an additional week in preparing our response regarding our remaining international operations.

In compiling this response, we followed the same process for reviewing potentially relevant information and adopted the same approach in interpreting each question that we described in our earlier submissions. We have completed our review of information in our foreign operations outside of the Americas, including our operations in the United Kingdom, Ireland, other countries in Europe, India, Asia, Australia, and New Zealand. We have no supplemental information to add to our June 13, 2008 responses to Questions 1 through 6 for our international operations.

Cadbury considers its review of its operations complete and this is our final response. In the event we discover additional responsive information, we will supplement our response at that time. Again, we do not view this submission as waiving any rights, privileges, or immunities.
